REFACE

In the field of eduti[on] e need for a special index has been apparent for some time. In 190[8] he as correspondence between W. Dawson Johnston, then Librarian o[f] the ited States Bureau of Education, and Halsey W. Wilson, president [o]f th[e] H. W. Wilson Company, as to the publication of such an index. Lra[rs] and educators expressed their interest and suggestions were receed [f]m many sources. It was not, however, until late in 1928 that the ne[ed] ned ripe for the undertaking. The first number was not published unt[il] M[ay] 1929 but covered the period from January 1929.

Meanwhile the oy[o] Educational Index, edited by Dr. Austin G. Schmidt, of Loyola niv[er]ity, had been published five times in 1928 with a bound cumulated ind[ex] f that year. About the same number of periodicals were indexed as we[re] ned for the Education Index but they were not indexed in full. Or a[rt]les on theory and practice were selected. When the Education Index w[as] ounced, the Loyola Educational Index voluntarily withdrew from thei[r] el[d].

The purpose [of] th[e] Education Index is to serve as a clearing house for educational literat[ure] ith emphasis on that published in periodicals. As the sub-title indica[tes] oks and pamphlets are included and many of the books and proceedings [of] s[o]eties are analyzed.

This cumul[ati]on [o]f the Index covers the three and a half year period, January 1929 to un[e] 1932 and supersedes all numbers published during that time. Annual [cu]ted volumes are planned for July 1932 to June 1933, July 1933 to Ju[ne] 34 and a three year cumulation in 1935 for the period July 1932 to Ju[ne] 35.

Changes in[ti]es of periodicals, consolidations, discontinuances and additions are not[ed] in the "List of Periodicals Indexed." The months covered for the magazi[nes] ndexed are noted after the name of the magazine. Some of the 1928 iss[ues] of magazines transferred from the International Index to Periodicals w[ere] ot received until 1929 and so are included to make the indexing comple[te]. Books and pamphlets published before 1929 are not included.

In the "Li[st] of Periodicals Indexed" the starred periodicals are indexed for articles [of] pecial interest only. A few of the magazines, as indicated, are also inde[xed] in other Wilson indexes. In these cases articles on educational subjects only are included since the publications are fully indexed elsewhere. In [o]ther cases the magazines are indexed in full.

Additio[nal] references on educational subjects are taken from magazines indexed in [the] Agricultural Index, Industrial Arts Index, International Index to Periodi[cals] and the Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature. The names of the periodcals in such entries are written in full and are not found in the "List of Periodicals Indexed."

Revie[ws] of books are entered only under the heading Book Reviews, sub-arrange[d] by author of the book. The reviewer's name is included. Reviews do not appear in the main alphabet under the reviewer's or author's names.

Poems are listed only under the subject heading, unless the author is very well known, in which case an author entry is also made.

In so far as is possible, in an inde levote a special subject, the subject headings used by the Readers' Gle to odical Literature and the International Index to Periodicals haveen yed. Where changes have been necessary cross references haveen mo assist those accustomed to the other headings.

In the compilation of the index there amany ingly minor activities that are monotonous and laborious to perfc but out which the index would lose much of its value. To all whontri toward this cumulation in these and other ways grateful acknledgis made.
